

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOL. II

LAW OF JUDGMENTS AND EXECUTIONS, PART I

JUDGMENTS

CHAPTER I, Nature And Essentials	1
1. In General	1
2. Elements of Jurisdiction	2
3. Same subject, Illustrated	2
4. Nature and essentials of a court	3
5. Nature of the business	5
6. Organization and qualification of officers	5
7. Time of sitting	5
8. Place of sitting	6
9. Power to try such causes and give such judgments	7
10. Same subject, Depends on law defining powers and not on facts	7
11. Why so	8
12. Jurisdiction of the person	8
13. Same subject, Non-resident	9
14. Same subject, Exceptions	10
15. Same subject, Service on corporations	10
16. Jurisdiction of the thing	11
17. Jurisdiction of the Question	11
18. Same subject, Opinion quoted	12
19. Same subject, another case	13
20. That procedure is jurisdictional	13
21. Procedure not jurisdictional	14

CHAPTER II

THE RECORD	16
22. Nature	16
23. Entry of the record	16
24. Same subject, Example	16
25. Conclusiveness of the record	17

CHAPTER III

EFFECT OF JUDGMENT AS A BAR	19
26. Why a bar	19
27. Amending and modifying judgments	19
28. Splitting the cause	19
29. Splitting the grounds of recovery and defense	20
30. Cross-claims	20

31. Fraud	21
32. Judgments not on the merits	21

CHAPTER IV

JUDGMENTS AS ESTOPPELS	22
33. Distinguished from bar	22
34. Essentials of an estoppel	22
35. Parties estopped	22
36. Estoppel extends only to points actually litigated	23
37. Estoppel only as to points certainly and necessarily decided	24
38. Two actions depending on different law	24
39. If the court that tried the first case could not try the last one	25
40. Judgments bar and estop privies	25
41. Judgments binding strangers	26
42. Same subject, Judgments in rem	27

CHAPTER V

NATURE AND EFFECT OF EXECUTIONS	28
43. In General	28
44. Kinds of execution	28
45. Same subject, Capias	28
46. Issuing the writ	29
47. Same subject, Death	29
48. Same subejct, Who may issue	29
49. Same subject, Form	30
50. Controlling execution of the writ	30
51. Who may execute the writ	31
52. Sheriff's right to indemnity	31
53. Sheriff's right to break in	32
54. When levy, sale, and return may be made	32
BIBLIOGRAPHY	33
QUIZ QUESTIONS	34

LAW OF EXTRAORDINARY REMEDIES

PART I, THE REMEDIES IN GENERAL	39
---------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER I

DEFINITIONS, ANALOGIES AND HISTORY

1. The purpose of the remedies	39
2. Not used in equity	39
3. Equitable analogies, Clean hands	40
4. Same subject, Laches	40
5. Origin of mandamus	41

6. Origin of prohibition	41
7. ;Origin of certiorari	41
8. Origin of quo warranto	42
9. Origin of Habeas Corpus	42

CHAPTER II

PRACTICE AND PLEADINGS	44
10. How and when proceedings begin	44
11. Demand and refusal	44
12. Who may be the petitioner	44
13. Who may be the respondent	45
14. The alternative writ	46
15. The answer	47
16. An ordinary remedy a bar	47
17. A statutory remedy generally a bar	48
18. Another remedy must be adequate to be a bar	48
19. A remedy in equity not a bar	49
20. Discretion of the courts	49
21. The trial	50
22. Costs	50
23. Jurisdiction, King's Bench and the United States Supreme Court	50
24. Same subject, Other federal courts	50
25. Same subject, State courts	51

CHAPTER III, PART II

THE REMEDIES IN PARTICULAR	52
MANDAMUS	52
26. Jurisdiction of federal and state courts	52
27. Against corporations	52
28. Against officers	52
29. Same subject, Federal and state officers	53
30. Same subject, Title to office	53
31. What duties it enforces	54

CHAPTER IV

PROHIBITION	55
32. When issued to a court	55
33. When issued to other tribunals	55

CHAPTER V

CERTIORARI	56
34. Not issued to a common law court	56
35. Other tribunals	56
36. What errors it corrects	57

CHAPTER VI

QUO WARRANTO 58

37. Against corporations, Municipal 58

38. Same subject, other corporations 58

39. Franchises and powers 59

40. Against officers, Public 59

41. Same subject, Private 60

42. Same subject, Preliminary proceedings 61

43. Same subject, Federal and state officers 61

44. When relief must be in equity 61

CHAPTER VII

HABEAS CORPUS 63

45. What is custody 63

46. Jurisdiction of federal and state courts 63

47. Same subject, Under the Revised Statutes 64

48. Same subject, Legislative custody 65

49. The return to the writ 66

50. Errors in sentence 66

51. Errors in commitment papers 66

52. When finding of fact conclusive 67

53. Suspension of the writ, By the President 67

54. Same subject, by Congress 68

55. Same subject, by the States 68

BIBLIOGRAPHY 68

QUIZ QUESTIONS 69

LAW OF EVIDENCE

CHAPTER I

RULES OF EXCLUSION

PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS 73

1. Evidence analyzed 73

2. Same subject 73

3. Evidence defined and distinguished from reasoning 74

4. Judicial evidence and extra-judicial evidence distinguished 74

5. Testimony, Documentary evidence, Real evidence 75

6. Evidential facts and ultimate facts 75

7. Irrelevant matters inadmissible 75

8. Place of the law of evidence in the general scheme of the law 76

9. The law of evidence defined 76

10. The rules of the law of evidence distinguished from other rules of law 76

11. Same subject 77

12. Relevant matters admissible 78

CHAPTER II
UNIMPORTANT, MISLEADING AND PREJUDICIAL MATTERS	79
13. Introductory	79
14. The rule stated	79
15. Typical cases	79
16. The cases explained	80
17. Corollaries to the rule	81
18. Matters not within the rule	82
CHAPTER III
CHARACTER	83
19. Character of parties to the litigation - The rule stated	83
20. Reason for the rule	83
21. Character, when provable	83
22. Scope of the exception	83
23. Another exception	84
24. Admissible evidence of character defined	84
25. Character evidence, how presented	84
26. Matters not within the rule	85
CHAPTER IV
CONFESSIONS	86
27. Confessions - The rule stated	86
28. Reason for the rule	86
29. Confessions, when admissible	86
30. Typical cases	86
31. Confessions, how presented	87
32. Matters not within the rule	87
CHAPTER V
HEARSAY	88
33. Hearsay - The rule stated	88
34. Reason for the rule	88
35. Matters not within the rule	88
36. Typical cases	88
37. Exceptions to the rule	89
38. Hearsay evidence, how dealt with	89
CHAPTER VI
EXCEPTIONS TO THE RULE AGAINST HEARSAY	90
39. Former testimony - The exception stated	90
40. The exception explained	90
41. Satisfaction of the exception	90
42. Scope of the exception	90
43. Former testimony, how shown	90

44. Dying declarations - The exception stated	91
45. Scope of the exception	91
46. Same subject	91
47. Declarations in questions of pedigree-The exception stated	92
48. The exception explained	92
49. Scope of the exception	92
50. Declarations as to matters of public or general interest-Exception stated	93
51. The exception explained	93
52. Public or general interest defined	93
53. Public interest and general interest distinguished	93
54. Scope of the exception	94
55. Private boundaries as matters of public or general interest	94
56. Public documents - The exception stated	95
57. Public document defined	95
58. Typical cases	95
59. Other considerations	95
60. Ancient documents	95
61. Ancient possession - The exception stated	96
62. Different meanings of the term "ancient"	96
63. Typical cases	96
64. Proper custody defined	96
65. Ancient possession, how shown	97
66. Entries and declarations against interest - The exception stated	97
67. Declarations against interest and admissions distinguished	97
68. Scope of the exception	98
69. Statements incorporated with declarations against interest	98
70. Account books of parties to the litigation - The Exception stated	99
71. Reason for the exception	99
72. No general American rule	99
73. Scope of the exception	99
74. Same subejct	100
75. Account books, how proved	100
76. The suppletory oath	100
77. Present utility of the exception	101
78. Entries and declarations of third parties	101
79. The exception distinguished from that in favor of account books	101
80. Scope of the exception	101
81. Same subject	102
82. Entries made in the regular course of business, how proved	102
83. An extension of the exception	102
84. Declarations bearing upon the physical or mental condition, declarant	103
85. Reason for the exception	103
86. Statements descriptive of present mental or physical distress	103
87. Statements as to intention	104
88. Typical cases	104

89. Statements of the testamentary intention	105
90. Declarations which are a part of some fact or transaction	106
91. Scope of the exception	107

CHAPTER VII

OPINION	110
92. Opinion - The rule stated	110
93. Explanation of the rule	110
94. Matter of fact and matter of opinion distinguished	110
95. Opinion evidence, when admissible	111
96. Typical cases	111
97. Opinions of ordinary witnesses, when admissible	112
98. Expert opinion evidence	113
99. Expert opinion, how presented	113
100. Same subject-hypothetical questions	113

CHAPTER VIII, PART II

FORMS IN WHICH JUDICIAL EVIDENCE MAY BE PRESENTED	115
REAL EVIDENCE	115
101. Introductory	115
102. Real evidence defined	115
103. Examples of real evidence	115
104. Same subject	115
105. The rule stated	116

CHAPTER IX

DOCUMENTS	117
106. Proof of authorship of documents	117
107. A document defined	117
108. Attested and unattested writings	117
109. Writings, how presented	117
110. Execution of unattested writings, how shown	117
111. Execution of attested writings, how shown	117
112. Same subject - When the rule does not apply	118
113. Same subject - Statutory modification of the rule	118
114. Proof of execution - When unnecessary	118
115. Proof of contents of writings - Best evidence rule	119
116. Inscriptions not within the rule	120
117. Scope of the rule	120
118. Excuses for non-production	121
119. Degrees of secondary evidence	122
120. The so-called parol evidence rule	122
121. The rule explained	122
122. Scope of the rule	123
123. The rule in contracts	123

124. When the contracts rule does not apply	124
125. The rule in wills	124
126. Principles and rules for the construction of writings	125
127. Technical language, how explained	125
128. The rules stated	125
129. A typical case	125
130. Other rules	126
131. A rule of evidence relating to writings	126
132. Reason for the rule	126
133. The exception explained	126

CHAPTER X

WITNESSES	127
134. Introductory	127
135. Incompetency defined	127
136. Common law causes of incompetency	127
137. Same subject	127
138. Same subject - Statutory modifications	128
139. The rule in the federal courts	129
140. Privilege and incompetency distinguished	129
141. The privilege against self-incrimination	129
142. Scope of the privilege	129
143. Claim of the privilege by an accused	130
144. Effect of assertion of the privilege by an accused	130
145. Waiver of the privilege by an accused	130
146. Claim of the privilege by an ordinary witness	130
147. Assertion and waiver of the privilege by an ordinary witness	131
148. Same subject	131
149. When the privilege cannot be claimed	131
150. Privileged communications	132
151. Communications between attorney and client	132
152. Scope of the privilege	132
153. How the privilege is claimed and waived	132
154. Communications between husband and wife	133
155. The examination of witnesses	134
156. Direct examination - Cross examination - Re-examination	134
157. Personal knowledge defined	134
158. Refreshing recollection	134
159. Discretion of the court	135
160. The examination in chief	136
161. Leading questions - When not objectionable	136
162. A party cannot impeach his own witness	136
163. Cross-examination	137
164. Scope of cross-examination	137
165. Leading questions unobjectionable on cross-examination	137

166. Impeachment by cross-examination	137
NOTE	140
 CHAPTER XI, PART III
TOPICS RELATING TO THE LAW OF EVIDENCE	141
JUDICIAL NOTICE
167. The doctrine explained	141
168. Relation of the doctrine to the law of evidence	141
169. Matters judicially noticed	141
170. Judicial notice establishes a fact only prima facie	142
 CHAPTER XII
PRESUMPTIONS
171. The doctrine explained	143
172. Effect of a presumption	143
173. Presumptions are matters of substantive law	143
 CHAPTER XIII
BURDEN OF PROOF
174. The burden of establishing a proposition	146
175. The burden of going forward with evidence	146
176. The burden of proof defined	146
177. Operation of the burden of proof	146
178. Same subject	147
179. Operation of the burden of presenting evidence	147
180. Effect of a presumption on the burden of proof	147
 CHAPTER XIV
ADMISSIONS
181. Confessions and admissions distinguished	149
182. The nature of an admission	149
183. When admissions may be shown	149
184. Solemn admissions	149
185. Unsolemn admissions	149
186. Admissions, when final	150
187. Admissions of parties to a record	150
188. Admissions of persons not parties to a record	150
189. The rule in conspiracy cases	151
 CHAPTER XV
LAW AND FACT
190. Introductory	152
191. Questions of law distinguished from questions of fact	152
192. Questions of fact - Court and jury	152
193. Verdicts of juries	152

194. Taking cases from the jury	153
BIBLIOGRAPHY	154
QUIZ QUESTIONS	155

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

CHAPTER I, PART I

DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES

CONSTITUTIONS, THEIR NATURE AND FORMS

1. Constitutional law defined	163
2. Subjects of constitutional law	164
3. Constitutions - Early meanings	164
4. Definition of a constitution	165
5. Necessity of a constitution	165
6. Further distinctions	166
7. Forms and types of constitutions	166
8. Written and unwritten constitutions	166
9. Sources of written constitutions	167
10. The British constitution	168
11. Flexible and rigid constitutions	169
12. Strength and weakness of written constitutions	170
13. Essentials of a written constitution	171
14. The bill of rights	172
15. Federal and state constitutions compared	173
16. The origin of the state constitutions	174
17. Character of the early state constitutions-stages of development	175
18. Framing of state constitutions - Stages of procedure	176
19. The legal position of the constitutional convention	178
BIBLIOGRAPHY	179

CHAPTER II

AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

20. Origin and formation of the Federal Constitution	180
21. The Constitutional Convention of 1787	180
22. The compromises of the Constitution	181
23. Ratification of the Constitution	182
24. The Constitution in outline	182
25. The Federal Bill of Rights	183
26. Sources of the Constitution	185
27. Amendment and revision of constitutions	186
28. The procedure for amending the Federal Constitution	187
29. Amendment of state constitutions	189
30. Procedure and limitations	190
31. Judicial interpretation of the amending power	191
32. Number of amendments adopted	192

33. Rules for the construction of state constitutions	192
34. Supremacy of the Federal Constitution	194
35. Power of the courts to declare statutes unconstitutional	194
36. Early American practice	195
37. The doctrine of Marbury v. Madison	197
38. Reasons for the doctrine	198
39. Conditions under which a statute will be declared unconstitutional	199
40. Extrinsic evidence	200
41. Effect of void statutes	201
42. Advisory opinions	202
BIBLIOGRAPHY	203
QUIZ QUESTIONS	204

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, PART II

ORGANIZATION AND POWERS OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT	209
---	-----

CHAPTER I

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNION AND THE STATE	209
1. Federal government	209
2. Division of powers between the national and state governments	210
3. Classification of federal and state powers	211
4. Exclusive and concurrent powers	211
5. Powers prohibited to the national government	213
6. Powers reserved to the states	213
7. Powers prohibited to the states	213
8. Implied powers	214
9. Resulting powers	215
10. Inherent powers	215
11. Supremacy of federal authority	216
12. National control of state government	217
13. Rights and privileges of the states	218
14. Obligations and duties of the states-The full faith and credit clause	219
15. Extradition of fugitives from justice	220
16. Interstate rights of citizenship	222
17. Federal coercion of a state	223
BIBLIOGRAPHY	224

CHAPTER II

POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT	225
18. Distribution of powers among departments	225
19. The President - Powers and duties	227
20. Power of appointment and removal	228
21. Power of direction	229
22. Power to execute the laws	230

23. Power in respect to foreign relations	230
24. Power in relation to legislation	232
25. Military powers	233
26. Power to grant pardons	234
27. Remedies against the action of the President	234
BIBLIOGRAPHY	236

CHAPTER III

THE POWERS OF CONGRESS	237
28. In general	237
29. The power of taxation	237
30. Power to borrow money	238
31. Regulation of commerce	239
32. Naturalization	240
33. Bankruptcy	241
34. Power to coin money	242
35. Weights and measures	243
36. Post offices and post roads	243
37. Copyrights and patents	244
38. Punishment of crime	245
39. War powers of Congress	247
40. The militia	249
41. Military government and martial law	250
42. Government of the territories	252
43. The District of Columbia	254
44. Admission of new states to the Union	254
BIBLIOGRAPHY	257
QUIZ QUESTIONS	258

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, PART III

CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTIES OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

CHAPTER I

THE CONSTITUTION AS A BILL OF RIGHTS	263
1. Historical basis	263
2. English constitutional documents	263
3. Magna Charta	264
4. State bills of rights	265
5. Federal Bill of Rights	266
6. Limitation only on federal government	266
7. Federal guaranties as against state legislation	266
8. Privileges and immunities of federal citizenship	267
9. State guaranties not superseded	269
10. Further as to federal privileges and immunities	269
11. Federal guaranties as affecting the inhabitants of territorial possessions	270

CHAPTER II

POLITICAL PRIVILEGES AND THEIR PROTECTION	271
12. Citizenship	271
13. By birth or naturalization	271
14. Federal citizenship	272
15. Same subject - Illustration	273
16. Same subject - Further illustration	273
17. State citizenship	274
18. Citizenship in the territorial possessions	274
19. Citizenship of Indians	274
20. Citizenship of corporations	274
21. Naturalization	275
22. Method	275
23. Same subject - Steps required	275
24. Other conditions	277
25. Declarations previously made	277
26. White persons	277
27. Married women and minor children	277
28. Military service	278
29. Indians	278
30. Suffrage	278
31. Under state constitutions	279
32. Federal constitutional and statutory provisions	279
33. Right to vote at federal elections	279
34. Republican form of government	280
35. Purpose of the provision	281
36. Changes in state governments	281
37. Method of determining whether a state government is republican	281
38. Cases of invasion or insurrection	282
39. Political question	282
40. Titles of nobility	282

CHAPTER III

CIVIL RIGHTS AND THEIR GUARANTIES	283
41. Federal and state constitutional provisions	283
42. Religious liberty	283
43. Protection of religious freedom	285
44. Taxation and exemptions	285
45. Bible in schools	285
46. Freedom of speech and the press	286
47. Privileged publications	286
48. Censorship of the press	286
49. Use of the mails	287

50. The right to assemble and petition	287
51. Right to bear arms	288
52. Security of the dwelling and the person	288
53. Search warrants	289
54. Quartering of soldiers	289
55. Personal liberty	289
56. Habeas corpus	290
57. Slavery prohibited	291
58. Peonage	291
59. Due Process of Law	292
60. Forms of procedure	293
61. Equality before the law	293
62. The persons protected	294
63. Corporations	294
64. Jury trial in civil cases	295
65. Essentials of jury trial	297
66. In what cases jury trial required	297
67. Review on appeal	298

CHAPTER IV

PROTECTION OF PERSONS ACCUSED OF CRIME

68. Trial and procedure	299
69. Due process of law in criminal procedure	299
70. Bills of attainder - Ex post facto laws	299
71. Changes in procedure	301
72. The accusation	301
73. Whether indictment essential	302
74. In federal courts	302
75. The trial	302
76. Trial by jury	303
77. Acquittal conclusive	304
78. Waiver of trial by jury	304
79. Other essentials of trial in criminal cases	304
80. Self-incrimination	305
81. Unreasonable searches and seizures	305
82. Conviction and sentence	305
83. Indeterminate sentence	306
84. Twice in jeopardy	306

CHAPTER V

DUE PROCESS OF LAW AND EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAW, AS AFFECTING PERSONAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

-- THE POLICE POWER	308
85. General purpose of Fourteenth Amendment	308
86. Applicable only to state action	308

87. Unequal administration of the law	309
88. Due process of law	309
89. Difficulty of definition	310
90. Equal protection of the laws	312
91. Uniformity	313
92. Legislation	314
94. Preservation of government	315
95. Preservation of public peace and good order	316
96. General public welfare involving the preservation of health and safety	316
97. Public morals and decency	317
98. Business morality	317
99. Freedom of contract	318
100. Protection to property	319
101. Use of public property and natural resources	320
102. Sumptuary laws	320
103. Federal police power	321
104. Function of the courts as to cases of police power	322
105. Executive department	323
106. Taxation	323
107. Pardons	324
108. Administration of alien exclusion acts	324
109. Subordination of military to civil power	324
110. Suspension of habeas corpus	325
111. Due process in judicial proceedings	325
112. Jurisdiction in personam	326
113. Jurisdiction in rem	327
114. Binding effect of judgment of courts having jurisdiction	329
115. Vested rights protected	329
116. Retrospective legislation	330

CHAPTER VI

IMPAIRMENT OF OBLIGATION OF CONTRACTS	332
117. State legislation prohibited	332
118. Public debts and their incidents	332
119. What are contracts of the state	332
120. Charter contracts	333
121. Limitations on charter contracts	333
122. Private contracts	334
123. Police power as to executory contracts	334
124. Impairment of remedy	335
125. Judgments as contracts	335
126. Changes in rules of judicial decision	336
127. Limitation not applicable to federal government	336
BIBLIOGRAPHY	337
QUIZ QUESTIONS	338

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, PART IV

EMINENT DOMAIN

CHAPTER I

THE LIMITS OF THE POWER	341
1. Eminent domain defined	341
2. The power limited by the jurisdiction	341

CHAPTER II

WHAT CONSTITUTES A TAKING	343
3. Actual deprivation a taking	343
4. The rights in a public way	343
5. Change of grade	344
6. Steam railroads	345
7. Street railways	345
8. Pipes and wires	346
9. Country roads and city streets	346
10. Fee in the public	347
11. Other public easements	347
12. Injury to outside land	347
13. Discontinuance	348
14. Waters and water rights	348

CHAPTER III

WHAT CONSTITUTES PROPERTY	349
15. Every interest is protected	349
16. Fixtures	349
17. Owner at time of taking considered	349
18. Franchises	350
19. Property of a city or town	350
20. Public service corporations	350

CHAPTER IV

THE PUBLIC USE	351
21. Property cannot be taken for private use	351
22. Public use defined	351
23. Use of the government	352
24. Public service	352
25. Distribution of commodities	353
26. Public pleasure	354
27. Assistance of private enterprise improper	354
28. Dominating industries	355
29. The mill acts	355
30. Drainage and irrigation	356
31. Excess takings	357

CHAPTER V
JUST COMPENSATION	359
32. Compensation must be certain	359
33. Injury to remaining lands	359
34. Set-off of benefits	359
CHAPTER VI
DUE PROCESS OF LAW	361
35. What questions are judicial	361
36. Record and hearing	361
37. Limitations and costs	362
38. What can be taken	363
CHAPTER VII
PROCEDURE, DAMAGES AND EVIDENCE	364
39. Taking and remedy	364
40. Damages when whole parcel is taken	364
41. Damages when part is taken	365
42. Damages when no land is taken	366
43. Expert and opinion evidence	365
44. Sales of similar land	366
BIBLIOGRAPHY	367
QUIZ QUESTIONS	368
CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, PART V
TAXATION	373
CHAPTER I
THE POWER OF TAXATION	373
1. Definition	373
2. Distinguished from sale	373
3. Distinguished from police power	373
4. Effect of the distinction	374
5. Taxes and excises	375
6. Two classes of taxes	375
7. Distinction between general and special tax	375
8. Special assessments	375
9. Excises defined	376
10. Two classes of excises	376
11. Excises in common use	377
12. Importance of distinction between tax and excise	377
13. Distinction in the Federal Constitution	377
CHAPTER II
TAXATION BY THE UNITED STATES AND OF UNITED STATES PROPERTY	379

14. Direct taxes	379
15. Duties and excises	379
16. Regulation under guise of taxation	379
17. Property of the United States	379
18. Bonds - Officers' Salaries	380
19. National banks - Transcontinental railroads	380
 CHAPTER III
TAXATION OF FOREIGN AND INTERSTATE COMMERCE	381
20. Duties on imports and exports	381
21. Duties of tonnage	381
22. States cannot tax interstate commerce	381
23. Rights of foreign corporations	381
24. Valuation of interstate lines	382
25. Peddlers and drummers	382
26. Goods in transit	383
27. Discrimination against products of other states	383
 CHAPTER IV
IMPAIRMENT OF THE OBLIGATION OF CONTRACTS AND DISCRIMINATION AGAINST CITIZENS OF OTHER STATES	384
28. Contracts of exemption	384
29. General laws not a contract	384
30. Contracts of exemption limited	384
31. Creditors' rights to continuance of tax	384
32. Change in law making tax unlawful	385
33. What constitutes discrimination	385
34. Rights of foreign corporations	385
 CHAPTER V
THE PUBLIC USES FOR WHICH TAXES CAN BE LEVIED	387
35. The use must be public	387
36. Public service a public use	387
37. Business enterprises	387
38. Moral obligations - Gratuities	388
39. The use must be of the district taxed	388
 CHAPTER VI
THE SITUS OF PROPERTY FOR THE PURPOSE OF TAXATION	389
40. State cannot tax property not within its jurisdiction	389
41. Real estate - Unit system	389
42. Tangible personal property	389
43. Intangible property	390

CHAPTER VII
UNIFORMITY, EQUALITY AND DUE PROCESS OF LAW	391
44. Classification not forbidden by Fourteenth Amendment	391
45. Classification prohibited in some states	391
46. Exemptions	392
47. Excises	392
48. Notice and hearing	392
49. Penalty for not filing list	393
50. Permissible methods of collection	393
CHAPTER VIII
ASSESSMENT OF TAXES	394
51. The process of assessment	394
52. Mandatory and directory provisions	394
53. Assessment made as of a certain day	394
54. Real and personal estate	394
55. Domicile	395
56. Evidence of domicile	395
57. Tangible personal property	396
58. The tax list	396
CHAPTER IX
COLLECTION AND REMEDIES	397
59. Summary methods permissible	397
60. Distress and arrest	397
61. Tax sales	397
62. Petition for abatement	398
63. Suit against town	398
64. Injunction	398
65. Suit against assessors	398
CHAPTER X
SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS	400
66. Special assessments constitutional	400
67. Public use required	400
68. Benefit must be local	400
69. Lawful objects of assessments	400
70. Assessment must not exceed the cost	401
71. Relation of assessment to benefit	401
72. Hearing	402
BIBLIOGRAPHY	403
QUIZ QUESTIONS	404

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, PART VI
NATURALIZATION	411
CHAPTER I
EXPATRIATION DEFINED AND EXPLAINED	411
1. The doctrine of perpetual allegiance	411
2. Treaties recognizing expatriation	411
3. Methods of expatriation	412
4. Same subject - Executive order of the President	412
5. When expatriation is not effected	412
CHAPTER II
COLLECTIVE NATURALIZATION -- METHODS ENUMERATED	414
6. Collective naturalization defined	414
7. Naturalization by conquest	414
8. Naturalization by treaty	414
9. Same subject	414
10. Naturalization by special acts of Congress	415
11. Naturalization by admission of new states	415
CHAPTER III
NATURALIZATION ACCORDING TO FEDERAL LAWS
PRELIMINARY METHOD OF PROCEDURE	417
12. Naturalization defined	417
13. Same subject - Federal statutes	417
14. Courts authorized to naturalize	418
15. Who may be naturalized	418
16. Declaration of intention	418
17. Form of declaration of intention	419
18. Exceptions to the requirements of declaration of intention	420
19. Rights acquired by the declaration of intention	420
CHAPTER IV
PROCEDURE IN COURT	422
20. Petition for naturalization	422
21. Form of petition	422
22. Affidavit of witnesses, form thereof and certificate from Department of Commerce and Labor	423
23. Filing of petition, notice thereof and fees to be deposited by petitioner	424
24. Proceedings in court	424
25. Same subject	425
26. Duties of clerk	426
27. Fees	426
28. Forms of certificate of naturalization and of stub of certificate	426
29. Fraudulent naturalization	427
30. Criminal offenses	428

CHAPTER V

NATURALIZATION BY RELATIONSHIP AND WITHOUT RESORT TO LEGAL PROCEEDINGS -- MARRIAGE 429

- 31. The status as determined by statute of an alien woman married to an American 429
- 32. Same subject - Residence, nature of citizenship and termination thereof ... 429
- 33. Status of an American woman married to a foreigner 429
- 34. Naturalization of minor children by naturalization of parent 430
- 35. Status of children by naturalization of mother by marriage 430
- 36. Application of law to illegitimate and adopted children 431

BIBLIOGRAPHY 431

QUIZ QUESTIONS 432

